Muth, of Bellaire, and William Haber-feld, of this city, was won by the latter urday evening with a big trip for Cincinnati. The Andes is due from that point

The Republicans of this city have chartered the steamer Bellaire to take them to Wheeling Monday night to help roll the ball for Harrison, Morton and Protection, and now it is feared the boat will not hold the crowd, and there is talk of securing a barge. The boys are well awake here and want to help their West Virginia friends all they can.—

900 feet a flow of oil was struck and the well is doing forty barrels a day with the oil in the top of the sand. The well

THE BALL ROLLS TO-NIGHT

And all the People will Turn Out to Assist the Cause.

THE CHIEF MARSHAL'S ORDERS

Which Chief Officers will do Well to Study—All the Arrangements Completed for a Grand and Enthusiastic Affair.

The big campaign ball will be rolled for Harrison, Morton and Protection in Wheeling to-night, and every one in this city and in the surrounding places who believes in this glorious ticket and the good principles it stands for are cordially invited to turn out and help the good cause along.

The rolling will be the first thing in the way of a big street demonstration by the people in this campaign, and while the affair will be one of a largely impromptu nature, it is not having been definitely known till Friday that a parade would be held this evening, there is no doubt that it will be one of the most important that will attend the natives. If half the reports are true that were circulated Saturday as to the number of men the various clubs are to turn out, the delegations that are coming from outside points, and the decorations and fireworks that are to be displayed, the reception of the ball will be a memorable one for years to come. Like the famous rolling of the ball of '40 that aroused such enthusiasm for Old Tippecanoe, this ball of '88 as it has revolved for Young Tippecanoe throughout the East, has awakened memories of that great campaign of forty-eight years ago, and if such a thing were possible, has aroused an even greater enthusiasm for the ticket of Young Tippecanoe than prevailed before.

The rolling of the ball to-night has been looked forward to with the greatest interest for the past forty-eight hours by nearly every one, Democrats as well as Republicans. The men who speak with pride of having either seen it or helped roll it, have done most towards arousing this interest. People, irrespective of politics, want to see it in order that in after years they may be able to boast of it as the "our old friends, the Sherrard boys," and others will be here; heavier county promises and more returns are to be known by to-morrow.

It is probable that thousands of strangers will see thousands of strangers marching along the streets of Wheeling.
All the surrounding towns will be represented. Pittsburgh promises over 1,000 men, and they are all dandy, convalescing from the war, in uniform and bearing badges and emblems. Washington county promises a big contingent; Steubenville, older ones do now of the other famous ball. Those who have not arranged to help roll the ball by taking part in the parade will be on the sidewalks to cheer and applaud the boys, old and young, as they tramp along in the night, and those who think differently are certainly doomed to disappointment.

Saturday evening Chief Marshal W.
H. Travis and his staff met at the Lincoln club and perfected arrangements for the ball. The staff is finally arranged is made up of: Adjutant, Capt. Sam Brubaker; Chief of Staff, Major J.
Kelsey Hall; Aides, Osborne Gray, George Zeecker, James Callahan, Noble Noble, Jerry Mead, C. D. Thurston, William Schweitzer, William McCormick, and W. W. Wickham, of Cleveland; Orderly, Richard Robb. The colors distinguishing these officers will be red sash for the Chief Marshal, blue sashes for the Adjutant and Chief of Staff, and white sashes for the Aides. The staff will report to Adjutant Brubaker, mounted and ready for duty, at 7:15 o'clock sharp, on Fourteenth street, in front of the Intelligencer office.

The procession will be as follows:
Mayor's band; Planned Knights; Junior Planned Knights; Martin's Ferry uniformed clubs; Bellaire uniformed clubs; Bridgeport uniformed clubs; other visiting uniformed clubs; old soldiers and voters of 1840; the colored clubs; the colored clubs (colored); G. W. Atkinson club (colored); the uniformed clubs of this city; uniformed visiting clubs; citizens not belonging to clubs; horsemen.

The attention of all club officers is specially directed to this order of formation so that they may be able to assist in getting their companies into line as quickly and orderly as possible. It would be a good idea for such officers to
column for reference.

The column will form on the west side of Chapline street with the right resting on Eighteenth street. The colored clubs and all other organizations that are assigned positions on the left of them, as indicated in the order of formation given above, will form on Chapline street north of Sixteenth, the colored clubs resting on Sixteenth street.
The uniformed clubs of the city will
column in the order that they arrive on the ground. All clubs are ordered to assemble at their headquarters at 7 o'clock and move in time to report to the Adjutant by 7:40 o'clock. The column will move on to the east of Chapline.

Officers commanding companies will march their men in files of not less than four, and not more than six, and will see to it that the regulation distance between files is well preserved, and above all not increased so as to give the column a "string-out" appearance. March the men in compact order, see to it that eyes and hands are kept to the front. In order to create the best possible impression the files should be kept well dressed as well as properly closed up.

The route of the procession will be as follows:
At 7 o'clock sharp move out Eighteenth street to Wood, up Wood to Sixteenteenth, down Sixteenth to Jacob, up Jacob to Fourteenth, down Fourteenth to Chapline, up Chapline to Twelfth, down Twelfth to Market, up Market to Seventh, down to Twelfth, down Main to Twelfth, up Twelfth to Market, down Market to Twentieth, up Twentieth to Chapline, down Chapline to Twentieth, up Twentieth to Eoff, up Eoff to Twenty-third, down Twenty-third to Main, up Main to Twentieth, down Twentieth to Chapline, up Chapline to Twentieth, down Twentieth to Market, up Market to Lincoln club and disband.

It will be noticed that a slight change is made; instead of moving down Twenty-fourth to Main from Eoff the column will go up to Twentieth-third and then turn down to Main. This is done in order that Mr. Gibson, an old veteran who helped to roll the Harrison ball in 1840, may have a chance to see the parade. He is bed-ridden now at his home on Eoff street, between Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth streets.

At some point on the line of march there will be a counter-march in order that all in the line may have a chance to see the ball and the log cabin which the colored clubs will carry.

The reports from Bellaire as to the effect that half the town is coming, and the same is true of Martin's Ferry, Bridgeport and other points. Washington, Pa., promises to send down a big delegation, and Hancock county and Brooke county will be represented.

The ball will be put together this morning and everything will be in good shape by supper time for a corking old demonstration.

The Union District Club.

The Union district Republican club met Saturday night in its new hall over Little's plumbing establishment, next door north of the postoffice. The hall is heavily and cosily fitted up. Frew & Bertchly furnished 50 chairs and several tables free, and B. F. Caldwell a stove on the same terms.

The club adopted a neat, small, light-hearted suit and cane, and badge as their marching outfit, and will turn out this evening to the big ball rolling in goodly numbers.

Campaign Echoes.

Mr. Dave Merritt and Mr. A. B. Hill have made a novel bet. If Harrison is elected Merritt is to wheel Hill from the Chapline street church to the Upper Market house, and if Cleveland is elected Hill is to wheel Merritt.

Mayer's brass band will head the procession this evening.

Col. C. L. Poorman made a good speech to a good crowd at West Liberty, this country, Saturday.

The Young Men's Republican Escort Club will meet this evening at 7 o'clock sharp in full dress.

The Register doesn't know how to be honest. It persists in announcing the big ball rolling for the wrong night.

The Bellaire Tribune says: Bellaire will send one of the largest delegations that ever visited Wheeling on Monday night to help roll the ball for Harrison, Morton and Protection.

The Junior Planned Knights will meet at Lincoln Club rooms this evening at 6:45 o'clock sharp to take part in the demonstration. All members are expected to be present in full uniform.

THE RECEPTION TO OUTSIDE CLUBS

Postponed from Next Saturday Till Monday the 15th.

It has been decided to postpone the big parade and reception to outside clubs, scheduled to take place next Saturday night, the 13th inst., till Monday night, the 15th inst., one week from to-night.

This was done at a meeting of the committees having it in charge held Saturday evening, after word had been received from Pittsburgh to the effect that there that night had been postponed till next Saturday night on account of rain, and therefore it would be impossible for the three clubs intending to come down here on that date to do so, as they would want to stay at home to help along the boom there.

The demonstration in Pittsburgh last Saturday night was to have been the first gun of the campaign on the Republican side, and it would have been a great help for the rain. As there are Republican parades booked to take place every Saturday between now and the election the Pennsylvanians cannot be looked for here on Saturdays.

marching along the streets of Wheeling.
All the surrounding towns will
promises a big contingent; Steubenville,
who think differently are certainly doomed to disappoint-
